

SO CAL ELECTROCHEMISTRY CONFERENCE FOR STUDENTS

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, IRVINE
APRIL 19, 2023

The 2023 SoCal Electrochemistry Conference for Students (SCECS) provides opportunities for students from all over Southern California in electrochemistry-related research to give oral and poster presentations and build connections with each other. Our objective is to give young electrochemists in the region a dedicated platform to share their work and foster relationships with their peers. Refreshments, lunch, and dinner will be provided.
